For Petitioner : Mr.T.Muruganantham

For Respondent : Mr.S.Karthikeyan
Additional Public Prosecutor

ORDER

The case has been heard through video conference

The petitioner, who apprehends arrest for the alleged offences under Sections 147, 148, 341, 294(b), 323, 324, 307 and 506(ii) of IPC, in Crime No.2271 of 2020, on the file of the respondent/Police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2.The case of the prosecution is that there are totally twelve accused persons involved in this case and the petitioner is ranked as A12. Further, on 14.11.2020, the defacto complainant and his friends were bursting crackers and celebrating diwali on the road during which the petitioner along with other accused persons had abused and also attacked them and they were caused serious injuries. Hence, the complaint was registered.

3.The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is an innocent person and he is no way connected with this crime and he has been falsely implicated in this case. He would further submit that now the main accused viz., A1 to A10 have been arrested and they were released on bail, He would further submit that occurrence taken place in the month of November 2020 and the name of the petitioner is not found in the FIR. He would further submit that there is no previous case pending as against the petitioner. Hence, he prays for anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Additional Public Prosecutor would submit that there are totally twelve accused persons involved in this case and the petitioner is ranked as A12. Further, on 14.11.2020, the defacto complainant and his friends were bursting crackers and celebrating diwali on the road during which the petitioner along with other accused persons had abused and also attacked them and they were caused serious injuries. He would further submit that co-accused have been arrested and they were released on bail. He would further submit that the injured person has been discharged from the hospital and there is no previous case pending as against the petitioner.

5. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case, and the co-accused were released on bail and the injured person has been discharged from the hospital, this court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate, Ambattur, on condition that the petitioner shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees ten thousand only) with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent police or the police officer who intends to arrest or to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned, failing which this petition for anticipatory bail shall stand dismissed and on further condition that:

[a] the petitioner and the sureties shall affix his photographs and Left Thumb Impression in the surety bond and the Magistrate may obtain a copy of their Aadhar card or Bank pass Book to ensure their identity.

[b] the petitioner shall report before the respondent Police daily at 10.30 a.m., until further orders.

[c] the petitioner shall not tamper with evidence or witness either during investigation or trial.

[d] the petitioner shall not abscond either during investigation or trial.

[e] On breach of any of the aforesaid conditions, the learned Magistrate/Trial Court is entitled to take appropriate action against the petitioner in accordance with law as if the conditions have been imposed and the petitioner released on bail by the learned

Magistrate/Trial Court himself as laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in P.K.Shaji vs. State of Kerala [(2005)AIR SCW 5560].

[f] If the accused thereafter absconds, a fresh FIR can be registered under Section 229A IPC.

7. With the above directions, this Criminal Original Petition is ordered.
