C O M M O N O R D E R

Heard Mr.N.Murali, learned counsel for the petitioners and Mr.J.Kumaran, learned Additional Government Pleader for the respondent.

2. The prayers in the writ petitions are for a mandamus directing the respondent to furnish a copy of the cross verification report received from the Karnataka State, relied upon in notices dated 12.01.2021.

3. Mr.Kumaran has filed a compilation of documents dated 11.03.2021 containing 22 pages. These documents, he says, constitute the cross verification report and there is no other document available with the Assessing Officer upon which reliance is placed. Thus, the mandamus stands achieved.

4. The petitioners are permitted to file their response to the notice, upon receipt of which, the respondent officer shall finalise the assessments in accordance with law and as expeditiously as possible.

5. These writ petition are disposed in the above terms. Connected, miscellaneous petitions are closed. No costs.
