2. When the case is taken up for final hearing, Mr.M.Gnanasekar, learned counsel appearing for the petitioner has informed this Court that, in a subsequent event, in separate disciplinary proceedings it was ended in removal of service, by order dated 07.04.2010 and as against the said order of removal of service, the petitioner has already filed a Writ Petition in W.P. 3. In this context, the learned counsel would submit that, once the said Writ Petition is decided and if it is decided in favour of the petitioner, then only, there would be a subsequent adjudication in the present issue, which is also a disciplinary proceedings during the service of the petitioner.

4. I have considered the said submissions made by the learned counsel appearing for the petitioner and noted the subsequent developments.

5. In view of the above, this Court is inclined to dismiss this Writ Petition as subsequently, the petitioner has already been removed from service and he is out of service, as of now, even though, the said issue has already been adjudicated and pending before this Court in the aforesaid Writ Petition.

6. This order of dismissal is passed with the liberty to the petitioner to revive this Writ Petition, in case the petitioner succeeds in the other Writ Petition, i.e., W.P. No. 22679 of 2010. However, there shall be no order as to costs. Consequently, connected Miscellaneous Petition is closed.
