2.According to the petitioner, while he was working as Chief WCC Operator /Trainee, he was subjected to disciplinary proceedings for the alleged misconduct of producing fake certificates, which ended in punishment of demotion to the Lower Category as Technician Grade III/ C in W3 Grade in the scale of pay of Rs.10300-3%-28390 (W3) on the petitioner and his basic pay in the demoted post was fixed at Rs.19,270/- vide proceedings dated 08.12.2014 by the 3rd respondent. Challenging the said proceedings, the petitioner has come forward with the present writ petition for the aforesaid relief.

3.Upon notice, the respondents filed a detailed counter affidavit, inter alia stating that the respondents selected and appointed the persons including the petitioner based on the certificates produced by them, which later on verification, came to know that the petitioner has produced fake certificates and he did not possess the required qualification for holding the post of wireless cum communication operator and hence, disciplinary proceedings was initiated against him; and since the petitioner was found guilty of the charges, which are grave in nature, he was imposed with the punishment of demotion by the order impugned herein. Thus, according to the respondents, no interference is required at the hands of this Court.

4.Today, when the matter was taken up for consideration, the learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that as against the order passed by the 3rd respondent, the petitioner has preferred an appeal on 03.12.2014, which is pending consideration before the Appellate Authority; and hence, it would suffice, if a direction is given to the said authority to dispose of the appeal within a time frame to be stipulated by this Court.

5.The learned counsel appearing for the respondents has no serious objection for granting such relief to the petitioner.

6.Considering the limited relief now sought by the learned counsel for the petitioner, which has not been seriously opposed on the side of the respondents, this Court directs the appellate authority to consider the appeal filed by the petitioner and pass appropriate orders on merits and in accordance with law, after affording an opportunity of hearing to the petitioner, within a period of eight (8) weeks from the date of receipt of a copy of this order.
