2. The case of the prosecution is that on the date of occurrence, when the petitioner in an inebriated mood had tried to step into the lorry, the owner of lorry prevented him, due to which, there was a wordy quarrel between the petitioner and defacto complainant, as a result of which, he said to have attacked the defacto complainant, thereby caused injury to him. In the said circumstances, the criminal case has been registered against him and now, he is seeking anticipatory bail.

3. The learned counsel appearing for petitioner would submit that he is an innocent person, he is no way connected with the offence as alleged in the complaint and he has been falsely implicated in this case. Hence, he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Additional Public Prosecutor submitted that now the investigation is also completed. He would submit that there is no previous case pending against the petitioner. However, he opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.
