The petition is filed challenging the order passed by the Income Tax Settlement Commission. The Preliminary objection raised regarding the maintainability of the Writ Petition is that the petitioner as well as the Settlement Commission is not falling within the territorial jurisdiction of the High Court of Madras and therefore, the Writ Petition is not entertained. On the similar issue, the Hon'ble Division Bench of this Court in W.A. No. 717 of 2020 passed an order on 14.09.2020 and the relevant paragraphs are extracted hereunder:

"7. To sum up the legal position as referred to in the above decision, the doctrine of dominus litis or doctrine of situs of the appellate Tribunal do not go together; and a dominus litis indicates that the suitor has more than one option, whereas the situs of an Appellate Tribunal refers to only one High Court wherein the appeal can be preferred. Further, it was pointed out that situs of a Tribunal may vary from time to time and it could be Delhi or some other place or Chennai as in the case on hand and the determination of jurisdiction of the High Court should be based on the relevant Statute and that the Parliament never contemplated to have a situation of this nature and if the cause of action doctrine is given effect to, invariably more than one High Court may have jurisdiction, which is not contemplated.

8. As noted above, the appellant is an assessee on the file of the third respondent namely the Deputy Commissioner of Income Tax, Company Circle 4(1)(Inv.), IV Floor, Kendriya Sadan, Koramangala, Bangalore. The Appellate Authority, before whom the assessee filed the appeal is the second respondent herein namely the Commissioner of Income Tax, Bangalore-III, Bangalore. Therefore, the learned Single Judge was justified in rejecting the writ petition on the ground that due to lack of territorial jurisdiction, the order passed by the Settlement Commission did not call for interference.

9. In the light of the above, the writ appeal is dismissed leaving it open to the appellant to move the High Court of Karnataka if they are so advised. It is also made clear that the above writ appeal has been dismissed solely on the ground of lack of territorial jurisdiction to entertain the appeal / writ petition and the merits of the case of the appellant have not been dealt with in this judgment. No costs. Consequently, the connected CMP is also dismissed."

2. In view of the principles laid down in the judgment cited supra, the Writ Petition stands dismissed. Leaving it open to the petitioner to move the High Court of Kerala having jurisdiction if they are so advised. It is made clear that the Writ Petition has been dismissed solely on the ground of lack of territorial jurisdiction to entertain the Writ Petition and the merits of the case of the petitioner have not been dealt with.

3. Accordingly, the Writ Petition stands dismissed. However, there shall be no order as to costs. Consequently, connected Miscellaneous Petition is closed.
