This Criminal Revision Case has been filed against the order made in Na.Ka.No.2214/2020/AA1 dated 20.01.2021 by the Revenue Divisional Officer, Ponneri, Thiruvallur District.

2 It is the contention of the petitioner that there is civil dispute pending between the parties, and hence the first respondent has no authority to pass the order, which is impugned in this revision. Hence, the order dated 20.01.2021 is liable to be set aside.

3 Heard the learned counsel appearing for the petitioner and the learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the first respondent.

4 It is seen that civil proceeding is pending between the parties and knowing fully well that civil proceeding is not attained its finality, the petitioner instead of contesting the same, in order to get order in his favour approached the Police and filed complaint against the second respondent and others with regard to the disputed property. Further, it is seen that the petitioner knowing fully well that the civil proceeding is pending before this Court, all along participated in the proceedings under 145 of Cr.P.C and now he has filed this revision before this Court against order passed by the first respondent. The act of the petitioner clearly shows that he has not approached this Court with clean hands and hence this Court is not inclined to pass any orders in his favour.

5 Hence, this criminal revision stands dismissed. Consequently, connected miscellaneous petition is closed.
