4. The fact remains that the arbitration proceeding has already been initiated and pending before the Arbitrator. Since the Arbitral Tribunal has already constituted, this Court is not inclined to pass any interim orders. Hence the applicant can very well go before the Arbitrator, under Section 17 of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996, to seek such a relief.

5. In such a view of the matter, this application is closed, with liberty to the applicant to file necessary application before the learned Arbitrator, for interim relief. Since the proceedings are already pending, such measure has to be taken by the applicant, within a period of two months, from today. Till such time, the respondents shall not encumber the property.
