This appeal has been filed for enhancement of the compensation granted by the Tribunal in the award dated 24.06.2020 made in M.C.O.P. No.568 of 2017 on the file of the Principal District Court, (Motor Accident Claims Tribunal), Perambalur.

2.By consent of the learned counsel appearing for the appellants as well as the respondent, the appeal is taken up for final disposal at the admission stage itself.

3.The appellants/claimants filed M.C.O.P.No.568 of 2017 on the file of the Principal District Court, (Motor Accident Claims Tribunal), Perambalur, claiming a sum of Rs.50,00,000/- as compensation for the death of one Kasthuri who died in the accident that took place on 07.08.2017.

4.The Tribunal considering the pleadings, oral and documentary evidence, held that the accident occurred due to rash and negligent driving by the driver of the Bus owned by the respondent and directed the respondent-Transport Corporation to pay a sum of Rs.13,80,400/- as compensation to the appellants.

5.Not being satisfied with the amounts awarded by the Tribunal in the award dated 24.06.2020 made in M.C.O.P. No.568 of 2017, the appellants have come out with the present appeal.

6.The learned counsel appearing for the appellants contended that at the time of accident, the deceased Kasthuri was aged 35 years, doing Agricultural work and owning Milk Cows and was earning a sum of Rs.20,000/- per month. The Tribunal fixed only a meagre sum of Rs.6,500/- per month as notional income without considering the year of accident. The compensation awarded by the Tribunal towards loss of dependency is meagre. The Tribunal failed to award any amount towards loss of love and affection and transportation expenses. The total compensation awarded by the Tribunal is meagre and prayed for enhancement of the compensation.

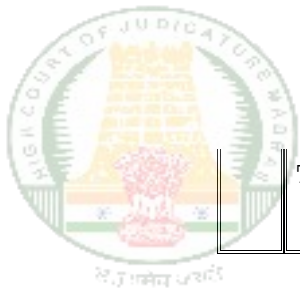

7.Per contra, the learned counsel appearing for the respondent-Transport Corporation contended that in the absence of any evidence by the appellants to prove the avocation and income of the deceased Kasthuri, the Tribunal fixed a sum of Rs.6,500/- per month as notional income and the same is not meagre. The total compensation awarded by the Tribunal is not meagre. The appellants have not made out any case for enhancement of the compensation and prayed for dismissal of the appeal.

8.Heard the learned counsel appearing for the appellants as well as the respondent-Transport Corporation and perused the materials available on record.

9. It is the case of the appellants that at the time of accident, the deceased Kasthuri was aged 35 years, doing Agricultural work and owning milk cows and was earning a sum of Rs.20,000/- per month. They did not file any document to prove the same. In the absence of any evidence to prove the avocation and income, the Tribunal fixed a sum of Rs.6,500/- per month as notional income of the deceased Kasthuri. The accident is of the year 2017. The cost of living has increased enormously and salary of even unskilled workers has increased substantially. Considering the year of accident, age and nature of work done by the deceased, the notional income fixed by the Tribunal is enhanced to Rs.12,000/- per month. The Tribunal considering the age of the deceased, has rightly granted 40% enhancement towards future prospects, applied the multiplier '16', and deducted 1/4th towards personal expenses, as there are 4 dependents of the deceased. Hence fixing the monthly income at Rs.12,000/-, applying multiplier '16' and after deducting 1/4th towards personal expenses of the deceased, the amounts granted by the Tribunal towards loss of dependency is modified to Rs.24,19,200/- {[Rs.12,000/- + Rs.4,800/- (40% of Rs.12,000/-)] x 12 x 16 x 3/4}. The Tribunal failed to award any amount towards loss of love and affection to the appellants 2 to 4. The appellants 2 to 4 being children of the deceased Kasthuri are entitled to a sum of Rs.40,000/- towards loss of love and affection. The amounts awarded by the Tribunal under other heads are just and reasonable and hence, the same are hereby confirmed. Thus, the compensation awarded by the Tribunal is modified as follows:

| S. No | Description                                     | Amount awarded by Tribunal (Rs) | Amount awarded by this Court (Rs) | Award confirmed or enhanced or granted |
