O R D E R

On the apprehension that the members of the 3rd respondent Trade Union are indulging in unlawful activities and creating nuisance in the factory premises, a civil suit came to be filed by the Management for permanent injunction to run their business smoothly and an interim injunction was granted by the Civil Court on 28.04.2015. In order to implement the interim order of injunction, the petitioner now seeks for Police protection to their factory premises.

2.This Court, by an order dated 14.10.2015, had made an interim direction to the respondents 1 and 2 to give adequate and proper protection to the petitioner's factory premises, so as to enable the petitioner/Company to carry on lawful activities till 03.12.2015.

3.This Court is of the view that the cause of action which arose in the year 2015 may not continue as on date and even otherwise, in case the Management is of the view that there are unlawful presumption of business activities now by the workers, the petitioner for this fresh cause of action, requires to approach the Police authorities first and thereafter, workout their remedies in accordance with law.

4.Above all grievances of the petitioner are considerably met through the interim order passed by this Court on 14.10.2015, whereby Police protection was already extended. As such, no effective orders can be passed in this background. Accordingly, this Writ Petition stands dismissed. No costs. Consequently, connected Miscellaneous Petition is closed.
