Condonation of delay (to be noted, 'condonation of delay' shall be referred to as 'COD' for convenience) is the prayer in captioned application.

2. 'Maxworth Orchards India Limited' [hereinafter 'said Company' for the sake of brevity and convenience] is the company which is under liquidation in aforementioned Company Petition i.e., 'C.P.No.57 of 1998' [hereinafter 'main CP' for the sake of brevity and convenience].

3. Mr.J.R.K.Bhavanantham, learned counsel for applicants who is before this Virtual Court submitted that the applicants are in Gujarat and Uttar Pradesh, owing to which, they could not keep track of the liquidation proceedings.

4. Ms.K.Latha Parimala Vadana, learned 'Official Liquidator attached to this Court' [hereinafter 'OL' for the sake of brevity and convenience] very fairly submits that she is not opposing the COD prayer.

5. This Court, having heard the learned counsel for applicant, having perused the affidavit filed in support of captioned application, having been satisfied that the reasons given are tenable and more importantly, having noticed that learned OL is not opposing the COD prayer, deems it appropriate to accede to the COD prayer. Though obvious it is made clear that the claim will be processed by OL on its own merits and in accordance with law.

6. Captioned Company Application allowed. There shall be no order as to costs.
