2.The case of the prosecution is that the the petitioners herein and other accused persons had issued fake insurance policies and collected a sum of Rs.14,41,089/- from the general public and cheated them. Hence, the complaint.

3.The learned counsel appearing for the petitioners submit that the petitioners have not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution and they have been falsely implicated in this case. Though it is claimed by the petitioners that they are employees and that they are not involved in any offence, however, it is evident from the submission of the respondent that investigation is still going on and that being the case, taking into consideration the gravity of offence committed by the petitioners and the amount involved, this Court is not inclined to grant bail to the petitioners.
