(Delivered by M.DURAISWAMY, J.)

These appeals are filed by the assessee under Section 260A of the Income Tax Act, 1961 ('the Act' for brevity), are directed against the order dated 12.12.2013 passed by the Income Tax Appellate Tribunal, Madras "A" Bench, ('the Tribunal' for brevity) in I.T.A.Nos.1975,1977 & 2289/Mds/2012 for the assessment years 2003-2004, 2008-2009, and 2009-2010.

2. The appeals were admitted on the following substantial questions of law:-

"1. Whether on the facts and in the circumstances of the case, the Tribunal is right in restoring the penalty under Sec.271(1) (c), when the sworn statements recorded clearly show that the income was earned by the appellant's husband and invested in the name of the appellant?

2. Whether on the facts and in the circumstances of the case, the Tribunal is right in restoring the penalty under S.271(1) (c), when the additions had been made only on the basis of the offer made by the appellant's husband in good faith and to avoid litigation?

3. Whether Explanation 5A to Sec.271(1) (c) is applicable to a situation where there was no finding by the Department that the assessee was the owner of any money bullion, jewellery or other valuable investment etc., not disclosed to the Department; but additions were made only on the basis of offer by the assessee's husband?"

3. We have heard Mrs.Sri Niranjani, learned counsel for the appellant/assessee and Mrs.V.Pushpa, learned Senior Counsel for the respondent/Revenue.

4. It may not be necessary for this Court to decide the Substantial Questions of Law framed for consideration on certain subsequent developments. The Government of India enacted the Direct Tax Vivad Se Vishwas Act, 2020 (Act 3 of 2020) to provide for resolution of disputed tax and for matters connected therewith or incidental thereto. The Act of the Parliament received the assent of the President on 17th March 2020 and published in the Gazette of India on 17th March 2020.

5. We are informed by the learned counsel for the appellant/ assessee that the assessee had already been issued with Form-3 on 10.12.2020 and the learned counsel for the appellant seeks permission of this Court to withdraw the appeal.

6. In view of the submission made by the learned counsel for the appellant, the Tax Case Appeals stand dismissed as withdrawn. No costs.
