PETITION FOR ANTICIPATORY BAIL 438 Cr.P.C.

ORDER : The Court Made the following order :-

The petitioner, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the alleged offence under Sections 147, 148 and 307 of IPC in Crime No.50 of 2021, on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2.The case of the prosecution is that the defacto complainant has been assisting his brother who is running a catering service. On 12.02.2021 it is alleged that the petitioner along with other accused persons entered into his place with knife and threatened him and caused injuries. Hence, the complaint was registered.

3.The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution and he has been falsely implicated in this case. Hence, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4.The learned Government Advocate (CrI.Side) would submit that the the defacto complainant has been assisting his brother who is running a catering service. On 12.02.2021 it is alleged that the petitioner along with other accused persons entered into his place with knife and threatened him and caused injuries. She would further submit that the injured person has been discharged from the hospital and there is one previous case pending as against the petitioner. However, she vehemently opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5.Considering the fact that the injured person has been discharged from the hospital, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

6.Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date of receipt of a copy of this order, before the learned Judicial Magistrate No.II, Poonamallee, on condition that the petitioner shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand Only), with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent police or the police officer who intends to arrest or to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned and on further condition that:
