COMMON ORDER

(Heard through video conferencing)

Since the issues involved in these petitions are identical, they are disposed through a common order.

2. When the matter is taken up for hearing, the learned counsel for the petitioners submitted that these civil revision petitions which have been filed to challenge the dismissal orders passed in the amendment petitions filed by the petitioners. The amendment petitions have been filed to amend the decree. Since the appeal itself has been taken up for hearing, the petitions to amend the decree has become infructuous.

3. In view of the above representation made by the learned counsel for the petitioner, the Civil Revision Petitions in C.R.P.(NPD).Nos.2005 & 2006 of 2016, are closed as Infructuous. No costs.
