3. The learned counsel for the petitioner submits that in an earlier occasion, the petitioner has filed anticipatory bail application in Crl.OP.No.19355 of 2020 in which the petitioner without prejudice to his defence and contention and on his own volition was ready to deposit a sum of Rs.8,30,000/- to the credit of Crime No.10 of 2020 and on the above said ground, the anticipatory bail was granted. However, the petitioner has only deposited Rs.3,00,000/- and the balance payment of Rs.5,30,000/- was not paid. Hence, the present petition has been filed on the ground that due to Covid-19, the petitioner could not mobilize the funds. Hence, he prays for allowing this modification petition.

4. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and the fact that in an earlier occasion, this court has granted anticipatory bail on the ground that the petitioner on his own volition was ready to deposit a sum of Rs.8,30,000/- to the credit of Crime No.10 of 2020. Now, the learned counsel for the petitioner has come forward with some other reasons to modify the condition and the same cannot be entertained. Accordingly, this modification petition is dismissed. However, the time is extended for a period of 4 weeks from the date on which the order copy made ready, failing which, the law enforcing agency is directed to secure the accused and the anticipatory bail granted by this court is automatically vacated.
