ORDER

(Heard through Video Conferencing)

The grievance of the petitioner herein is that the respondents 5 & 6 were appointed as Guest Lecturers in the 4th respondent College in the year 2014 and have been working as part time Lecturers. The petitioner claims himself to be also a Guest Lecturer, working for some time in 4th respondent College. According to him, the respondents 5 and 6 were illegally selected and appointed. According to the petitioner, the qualification of the private respondents was defective and therefore, they were not entitled to continue as lecturers.

2. In the above circumstances, the petitioner appears to have given a representation for taking disciplinary action against the respondents 4, 5 and 6.

3. This Court is unable to appreciate the case of the petitioner for the simple reason that no direction could be given on the basis of self-serving averments of the petitioner who appears to be having an axe to grind against selection and appointment of the respondents 5 and 6 herein. It appears to be a personal fight between the petitioner on one hand as against the respondents 5 and 6 on the other and the petitioner with a malafide intention, is attempting to drag the Constitutional Jurisdiction of this Court into the fight.

4. This Court, time and again has held that a constitutional jurisdiction of this Court cannot be invoked for settling in personal scores. Moreover, this Court cannot issue any direction, as this Court is of the view that the petitioner has no locus standi to maintain this writ petition as continuance of the respondents 5 and 6 as lecturers does not clash with the right of the petitioner. In any event, this Court finds that the writ petition lacking in bonafides and, therefore, liable to be rejected.

5. Accordingly, the writ petition stands dismissed. No
