2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner and other accused had illegally transported 60 bags of PDS rice each containing 50 kgs by using a lorry bearing Registration No.TN 09 R 9095 to Andhra for sale at a higher price. Hence the complaint.

3.The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner did not commit any offence as alleged by the prosecution. However, on instructions, he would further submit that the petitioner is ready to deposit a sum of Rs.50,000/- to the Dean, Government Medical College Hospital, Thiruvallur, as ordered by this Court. Hence, he sought for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Taking into consideration the facts and circumstances of the case and the fact that the similarly placed co-accused were already released on bail and the petitioner is ready to deposit any amount to the District Medical Officer, Government Hospital, Thiruvallur, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

(b) the petitioner shall deposit a sum of Rs.50,000/- (Rupees Fifty Thousand Only) either through RTGS/NEFT/Cash/Demand Draft in favour of "The Dean, Government Medical College Hospital, Thiruvallur" for the purpose treating COVID-19 patients and produce the proof of such payment to the concerned Judicial Magistrate.

(c) the petitioner shall report before the respondent police, daily at 10.30 a.m. for a period of two weeks and thereafter, as and when required for interrogation;

(d) the petitioner shall not tamper with evidence or witness either during investigation or trial;
