(The case has been heard through video conference)

There is no representation on the side of the appellant and the appellant has also not taken steps to serve notice on the respondents till date. The appeal has been filed challenging the interim order passed by the Arbitral Tribunal under Section 17 of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996 wherein, the Arbitral Tribunal has appointed the authorised representative of the respondent as Receiver to seize and sell the vehicle which was purchased by the appellant through a loan availed from the second respondent finance company.

2. The very purpose of arbitration is for early disposal of the disputes between the parties. Since steps have not been taken to serve notice on the respondents by the appellant till date, it can be inferred that he is not interested in prosecuting these appeals. Accordingly, these appeals are dismissed for non-prosecution. Consequently, the connected miscellaneous petitions are closed. No costs.
