... Respondent / Petitioner

Civil Revision Petitions filed under Article 227 of the Constitution of India, to quash the proceedings in the Domestic Violence Petition in D.V.No.7 of 2020 on the file of the Judicial Magistrate - I, Tambaram.

For Petitioners .. Mr.D.S.Ramesh

For Respondent .. No appearance

ORDER

This Revision Petition has been filed questioning the continuation of proceedings in D.V.No.7 of 2020 now pending on the file of the Judicial Magistrate - I Court, Tambaram.

2.Heard Mr.D.S.Ramesh, learned counsel for the revision petitioners.

3.The 1st revision petitioner is the husband. The 2nd and 3rd revision petitioners are the parents of the 1st revision petitioner and the 4th revision petitioner is the sister of the 1st revision petitioner.

4.It appears that the marriage between the 1st revision petitioner and the respondent was solemnized on 21.01.2019. Thereafter, there had been continuous complaints which had been levied with respect to demand of gold jeweleries prior to the marriage. It was also stated that two days prior to the wedding the 1st revision petitioner had apparently sent a message through

5. It is also seen that even subsequent to the marriage the relationship was not a smooth affair and there were continuous complaints levied as against the 1st revision petitioner by the respondent.

7.Mr.D.S.Ramesh, learned counsel for the revision petitioners stated that a reading of the complaint would reveal that there are no allegations raised against the 2nd, 3rd, and 4th revision petitioners. It is also stated that the 2nd and 3rd revision petitioners are senior citizens and the 4th revision petitioners is a Medical Professional. It is stated by the learned counsel, it would not be proper to expect them to appear before the Court of Judicial Magistrate No.I, Tambaram and the learned counsel also prayed that the Court should grant an order to dispense with the appearance of the 2nd, 3rd, and 4th revision petitioners before the said Court.

9.I would not interfere with the continuation of D.V.No.7 of 2020. However, I would give liberty to the 2nd, 3rd, and 4th revision petitioners to file necessary application to consider the allegations which had been raised against them and if there are no allegations, delink them as parties to D.V.No.7 of 2020. Additional liberty is granted to file necessary application seeking exemption from appearance and if such application is filed, I am confident that the learned Judicial Magistrate I, Tambaram, would examine the same in true spirit and give such liberty.

10. With the above observations, the Civil Revision Petition is dismissed. No order as to costs. Consequently, the connected Civil Miscellaneous Petitions are closed.

11. It is also stated by the learned counsel that all the jewels of the respondent have been returned and therefore, there is no cause for the respondent to continue with the proceedings as against the 2nd, 3rd, and 4th revision petitioners. The said revision petitioners may also state such averment before the learned Judicial Magistrate I, Tambaram.
