ORDER

The order impugned dated 15.10.2012, canceling the residential certificate is under challenge in the present writ petition.

2. The learned counsel for the first respondent made a submission that based on the cancellation order passed by the revenue authorities, the first respondent reallotted the distributorship in favour of the third respondent, with effect from 03.03.2017 and the third respondent is holding the distributorship.

3. As far as the petitioner is concerned the second respondent Tahsildar, Chengam Taluk, filed a counter affidavit stating as follows:

In the meantime, the petitioner managed to obtain Nativity Certificate dated 25.01.2012 issued by the 2nd respondent certifying that she is resident of Pudupalayam Village, Chengam Taluk, on the basis of Ration Card No.575-06/G/0449429 issued to sekar. The Nativity Certificate was issued prior to the findings of the District Supply Officer's Enquiry Report dated 04.10.2010. In view of the subsequent cancellation of the Ration Card No.575 -06/G/0449429 issued to Sekar, the Nativity Certificate issued to the petitioner on 25.01.2012 by the second respondent also stands cancelled. Hence, the petitioner is not entitled to claim any benefit on the basis of the Nativity Certificate dated 25.01.2012.

4. In view of the fact that the residence certificate issued in favour of the petitioner was cancelled and subsequently, the distributorship was allotted in favour of the third respondent, who is running the same for the past about three and a half years, there is no other reason whatsoever to interfere with the order impugned. If at all, the petitioner has got any other grievance, it is left open to the petitioner, to approach the competent authority. Accordingly, the writ petition stands dismissed. No Costs. Consequently, connected miscellaneous petitions are closed.
