2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner along with other accused persons were found in possession of banned tobacco products more than 25 kgs. Hence, the complaint was registered.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution and he has been falsely implicated in this case. He further submits that without prejudice to his defence and contentions, the petitioner, on her own volition, is ready and willing to deposit Rs.1,00,000/- to the Medical Superintendent/Authorised Officer, Government Hospital, Thiruvallur, Thiruvallur District. Therefore, he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) would submit that the petitioner along with other accused persons were found in possession of banned tobacco products more than 25 kgs. He would further submit that there is no previous case pending against the petitioner. However, he vehemently opposed grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

6. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date of receipt of a copy of this order, before the learned Judicial Magistrate No.II, Poonamallee, Tiruvallur District, on condition that the petitioner shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand Only), with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent police or the police officer who intends to arrest or to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned and on further condition that:
