The petitioner herein supporting the case of A3, argued with the defacto complainant and in that case, he stabbed the defacto complainant. (b)the petitioner shall make payment of Rs.75,000/- (Rupees Seventy Five Thousand only) to the credit of the President of the Women Lawyers' Association, Chennai, Tamil Nadu, without prejudice to his defence before the trial Court and the said amount may be disbursed to the young lawyers who lost their income during pandemic, and the learned Judicial Magistrate, after perusing the challan/ receipt, shall accept the sureties furnished by the petitioner;

(c) The above said Association, after receipt of the said amount, shall disburse the same to the junior advocate who lost their income in this COVID-19 pandemic situation;

(f)the petitioner shall not tamper with evidence or witness either during investigation or trial;

(g)the petitioner shall not abscond either during investigation or trial;

(h)on breach of any of the aforesaid conditions, the learned Magistrate/ Trial Court is entitled to take appropriate action against the petitioner in accordance with law as if the conditions have been imposed and the petitioner released on bail by the learned Magistrate/Trial Court himself as laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in P.K.Shaji Vs.
