When Rajesh was proceeding to Uppur in his bike, a Car and three two wheeler vehicle were followed him in a rash manner and hit the bike which was driven by Rajesh and he fell down. Al along with other accused persons were threatened and tried to murder Rajesh, however, the victim was escaped from the hands of the accused persons. Hence the defacto complainant lodged this compliant.

4.The learned Government Advocate (Cr1.Side) submitted that the offences against the petitioner and other accused persons are very heinous in nature and most of the accused persons are not secured and arrested yet. If this Court grants bail to the petitioner, there will be every possibility for tampering with evidence or witness either during investigation or trial;

5.Considering the nature of the case and also the submission made by the learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) that most of the accused are not arrested, this Court is not inclined to grant bail to the petitioner.
