2.The case of the prosecution is that there was a wordy quarrel between the petitioners and the defacto complainant, as a result of which, the petitioners had abused the defacto complainant with filthy language and attacked him and caused injuries. Hence, the complaint was registered.

3.The learned counsel appearing for the petitioners would submit that the petitioners have not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution and they have been falsely implicated in this case. Hence, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.
