ORDER

The petitioner who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the alleged offence under Sections 448, 294(b), 324, 307 and 506(ii) of IPC in Cr.No.174 of 2021 on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2.The case of the prosecution is that the defacto complainant and the petitioner's daughter are in love. To reprimand the same, the petitioner and his wife went to the defacto complainant house and threatened him. Due to wordy quarrel between them, the petitioner stabbed the defacto complainant with knife in his stomach. Based on the complainant lodged by the defacto complainant, the Law Enforcing Agency registered a case against the petitioner and other accused persons.

3.The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submits that the petitioner is an innocent persons and the petitioner has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution and he is falsely implicated in this case. Hence, the learned counsel prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4.The learned Government Advocate submits that injured person has been discharged from the hospital.

5. Considering the fact that the injured has been discharged from the hospital, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.
