3. The learned counsel for the petitioners would submit that false complaint has been given against the petitioners and they have nothing to do with the said allegations. He further submitted that Interstate Anticipatory bail may be granted to them so as to enable them to move the appropriate jurisdictional Court in the State of Karnataka for necessary relief.

4. Taking into consideration the facts and circumstances of the case, this Court is inclined to grant inter-state interim anticipatory bail to the petitioners for a period of eight weeks from today to enable them to move the concerned Court.

5. Accordingly, interim inter-state anticipatory bail is granted to the petitioners for a period of eight weeks, on condition that the petitioners shall surrender before the learned Judicial Magistrate, Ambattur within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready and the petitioners shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees ten thousand only) each with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the said learned Magistrate. Further, within two weeks from the date of execution of bail bond, the petitioner shall approach the competent Court in the State of Karnataka and seek appropriate relief.
