Government Advocate (Crl.Side) for R2

O R D E R

Today, when the matter is taken up for hearing the learned counsel for the petitioner seeks accommodation for arguing the matter and it reflects that the petitioner is not interested to proceed with the matter further.

2. On a careful perusal of the records, it reveals that there is no prima facie materials and arguable points to admit the above Criminal Revision Case.

3.In the light of the above, this Court does not find any perversity or illegality in the order passed by the learned Magistrate and the Criminal Revision Case is liable to be dismissed.

Accordingly, the Criminal Revision Case is dismissed.
