(Judgment was Delivered by M. DURAISWAMY, J)

This appeal filed by the assessee under Section 260A of the Income Tax Act, 1961 (-the Act- for brevity), is directed against the order dated 07.04.2016 passed by the Income Tax Appellate Tribunal, "A" Bench, Chennai (-the Tribunal- for brevity) in I.T.A.No.179/Mds/2016 for the assessment year 2007~08.

2. The appeal was admitted on 29.10.2016 on the following Substantial Questions of Law:

" Whether on the facts and circumstances of the case, the Income Tax Appellate Tribunal was right in treating the amount as unexplained investment under section 69 of the Act when no investment was made by the appellant and ;the amount was only in the nature of loan??"

3. We have heard Ms. G. Janani, learned counsel for the appellant and Mr.T.R. Senthil Kumar, learned Senior Standing Counsel, learned Standing Counsel for the respondent.

4. It may not be necessary for this Court to decide the Substantial Questions of Law framed for consideration on account of certain subsequent developments. The Government of India enacted the Direct Tax Vivad Se Vishwas Act, 2020 (Act 3 of 2020) to provide for resolution of disputed tax and for matters connected therewith or incidental thereto. The Act of the Parliament received the assent of the President on 17th March 2020 and published in the Gazette of India on 17th March 2020.

5. We are informed by the learned counsel for the appellant/assessee that the assessee has already filed the requisite Form ~ 1 on 31.01.2021 under Section 4 of the Act.

6. . In the light of the fact that the assessee has already availed the benefit under the Act, no useful purpose would be served in keeping this appeal pending. At the same time, safeguarding the interest of the assessee in the event the order to be passed by the Department under the Act is not in favour of the assessee. Accordingly, the Tax Case Appeal stands disposed of on the ground that the assessee has already filed requisite Form ~ 1 and the Department shall process the application at the earliest in accordance with the said Act and communicate the decision to the assessee at the earliest. As observed, the assessee is given liberty to restore this appeal in the event the ultimate decision to be taken on the declaration filed by the assessee under Section 4 of the said Act is not in favour of the assessee. If such a prayer is made, the Registry shall entertain the prayer without insisting upon any application to be filed for condonation of delay in restoration of the appeal and on such request made by the assessee by filing a Miscellaneous Petition for Restoration, the Registry shall place such petition before the Division Bench for orders.

7. With these observations, the Tax Case Appeal stands disposed of with the aforementioned liberty and Consequently, the Substantial Questions of Law are left open. No costs.
