[Order of the Court was made by R.PONGIAPPAN, J.]

The petitioner is the mother of Vijay @ Dhammu Vijay, son of Raja, aged about 23 years, who is the detenu. The detenu has been detained by the second respondent in BCDFGISSSV No.241/2020 dated 25.06.2020, holding him to be a "Goonda", as contemplated under Section 2(f) of Tamil Nadu Act 14 of 1982. The said order is under challenge in this Habeas Corpus Petition.

2. We have heard the learned counsel appearing for the petitioner and we have also perused the records carefully. The learned Additional Public Prosecutor has filed a counter and strongly opposed this Petition.

3. Though several grounds have been raised, learned counsel for the petitioner mainly focused his arguments on the ground that the remand order pertaining to the ground case has not been properly translated, which caused great prejudice to the detenu and he has been prevented from making an effective representation for consideration of the authorities concerned. Therefore, the impugned order of detention is vitiated in law.

4. On consideration of the submissions made on either side and upon perusal of the documents available on record especially Page Nos.72 and 73 of the booklet, it is clear that ground case remand order has not been properly translated in vernacular language. Thus, the impugned detention order is liable to be set aside on this ground.

5. In the result, the Habeas Corpus Petition is allowed and the order of detention in BCDFGISSSV No.241/2020 dated 25.06.2020, passed by the second respondent is set aside. The detenu, viz. Vijay @ Dhammu Vijay, son of Raja, aged about 23 years, is directed to be released forthwith unless his detention is required in connection with any other case.
