2.When the matter was taken up for consideration, the learned Special Government Pleader appearing for the second respondent submitted that the period during which the petitioner was under suspension was treated as leave before filing of the writ petition itself and hence, nothing survives for adjudication.

3.The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner sought liberty to the petitioner to approach the respondents for grant of benefits remaining unpaid, if any.

4.In view of the above, this writ petition is closed granting such liberty to the petitioner. No costs.
