The property tax assessment order most specifically for vacant land issued by the respondents for the period from 1980-81 to 2006-07 is under challenge in the present Writ Petition.

2. The petitioner states that he is the owner of the property bearing Door No.140, Staff Quarters, Kuppusami Naidu Hospital, Pappanayakanpalayam, Coimbatore to an extent of 1335 sq.ft of land and that he had purchased the same vide the sale deed dated 02.03.2006 in Document No.1561 of 2006 registered at S.R.O, Singanallur. The petitioner put up a new building and paid the property tax regularly. When the petitioner approached the second respondent for payment of property tax, the second respondent informed the petitioner to pay the vacant land tax for the period from 1980 to 2006 for about 33 years and pursuant to the information given by the petitioner, the impugned order has been passed in proceedings dated 16.08.2013.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner states that as per Section 168 of the Coimbatore City Municipal Corporation Act, 1981 the vacant land tax shall be imposed only for 13 half years (for 6 years) and the second respondent in the impugned order has demanded vacant land tax for 33 years and therefore, the very action is in violation of the provisions of the Coimbatore City Municipal Corporation Act.

4. The learned Standing counsel appearing on behalf of the respondents has no serious dispute about the provisions of the Coimbatore City Municipal Corporation Act. The learned Standing counsel for the respondents reiterated that the Competent Authority issued a circular also pursuant to the provisions of the Act to collect the vacant land tax for 13 half years and the petitioner is liable to pay vacant land tax for the said period which is to be calculated and recovered.

5. Considering the arguments of the respective learned counsels, this Court is of an opinion that the impugned order demanding vacant land tax for 33 years is beyond the scope of Section 168 of the Coimbatore City Municipal Corporation Act and therefore, the order is in violation of the provisions of the Act. Accordingly, the impugned order is quashed and the matter is remitted back to the respondents to reassess the vacant land tax in accordance with the act and the circular and the proceedings issued in this regard and to communicate the fresh vacant land tax assessment order to the petitioner enabling him to pay the vacant land tax based on such revised order which is to be passed within a period of eight weeks from the date of receipt of a copy of this order.

6. With these directions, this Writ Petition stands allowed. However, there shall be no order as to costs. Consequently, connected Miscellaneous Petition is closed.
