2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner is the grand son of the deceased. Further, there was a property dispute between them, as a result of which, the petitioner had abused the deceased in filthy language and assaulted her with pen knife and caused injuries to the deceased on her back side and hip. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is not involved in the offence and he has been falsely implicated. He further submits that he is in jail from 16.07.2021. Hence he prays for grant of bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Cr1.Side) submitted that there is no previous case pending as against the petitioner and the investigation is still pending. However, he vehemently opposed for grant of bail to the petitioner.
