O R D E R

The relief sought for by the petitioner has become infructuous. The grievance expressed by the petitioner to the effect that the subsequent notifications have adversely affected the interest of the fresh students who have joined the higher secondary (+2), is an issue which has become academic in nature and this Court leaves it to the wisdom of the respondents and no further directions can be given in this regard in the present writ petition.

2. This writ petition is accordingly closed. No costs.
