3.Per Contra, the learned counsel appearing on behalf of the first respondent objected the contention by referring to the letter dated 30.07.2014 that the petitioner has not submitted all relevant documents to establish his ownership in respect of the subject property and only on submission of all relevant documents, the case of the writ petition is to be considered.

4.This Court cannot conduct an adjudication in respect of the documents relied on by the petitioner. It is for the competent authority to consider the documents, if already produced by the petitioner, for the purpose of disbursement of the drought relief amount. Thus, the petitioner is at liberty to submit all relevant documents once again before the competent authorities enabling them to consider the case of the petitioner with reference to the terms and conditions of the drought relief scheme and in the event of ascertaining the eligibility, the case of the petitioner is to be considered on merits and in accordance with law.

5.With these directions, the writ petition stands disposed of. However, there is no order as to costs.
