

B. PUGALENDHI. J.

Since it was represented by the learned counsel for the petitioner that the writ petition was disposed of without taking note of the impleading petition filed by the petitioner, Registry was directed to list the matter under the caption “for being mentioned”.

2. Today, when the matter is taken up for hearing, the learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that he intends to file an impleading petition only now.

3. In view of the above submission and that there is no error in the order to be modified, no further order/modification is required in the above writ petition.
