O R D E R

[Order of the Court was made by R.PONGIAPPAN, J.]

Since date has already been fixed in this case for disposal in Crl.M.P.No.4954 of 2021, this matter has been taken up today.

2. The petitioner is the wife of the detenu, Annappanpettai Kumar @ Kumar, son of Kanthasamy, aged about 46 years. The detenu has been detained by the second respondent by its order dated 27.11.2020 in C.O.C.No.61/2020, holding him to be a "Boot-Legger", as contemplated under Section 2(b) of the Tamil Nadu Act 14 of 1982. The said order is under challenge in this Habeas Corpus Petition.

3. We have heard the learned counsel appearing for the petitioner and the learned Additional Public Prosecutor appearing for the respondents. We have also perused the records produced by the Detaining Authority.

4. Though several grounds have been raised in this Petition, learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would mainly focus his argument on the ground that there is gross violation of procedural safeguards, which would vitiate the detention. The learned counsel, by placing authorities, submitted that the representation made by the petitioner was not considered on time and there was an inordinate and unexplained delay.

5. The learned Additional Public Prosecutor opposed this Petition. He would submit that though there was delay in considering the representation, on that score alone, the impugned detention order cannot be quashed. According to the learned Additional Public Prosecutor, no prejudice has been caused to the detenu and thus, there is no violation of the fundamental rights guaranteed under Articles 21 and 22 of the Constitution of India.

6. The Detention Order in question was passed on 27.11.2020. The petitioner made a representation on Nil. Thereafter, remarks were called for by the Government from the Detaining Authority on 02.12.2020. The remarks were duly received on 04.01.2021. Thereafter, the Government considered the matter and passed the order rejecting the petitioner's representation on 11.01.2021.

7. It is the contention of the petitioner that there was a delay of 33 days in submitting the remarks by the Detaining Authority, of which 8 days were Government Holidays and hence, there was an inordinate delay of 25 days in submitting the remarks. It is the further contention of the petitioner that the remarks were received on 04.01.2021 and there was inordinate delay of 5 days in considering the representation by the Hon'ble Minister for Electricity, Prohibition and Excise Department after the Deputy Secretary dealt with it.

8. In Rekha vs. State of Tamil Nadu (2011 (5) SCC 244), the Honourable Supreme Court has held that the procedural safeguards are required to be zealously watched and enforced by the Courts of law and their rigour cannot be allowed to be diluted on the basis of the nature of the alleged activities undertaken by the detenu.

9. In Sumaiya vs. The Secretary to Government (2007 (2) MWN (Cr.) 145), a Division Bench of this Court has held that the unexplained delay of three days in disposal of the representation made on behalf of the detenu would be sufficient to set aside the order of detention.

10. In Tara Chand vs. State of Rajasthan and others, reported in 1980 (2) SCC 321, the Honourable Supreme Court has held that any inordinate and unexplained delay on the part of the Government in considering the representation renders the very detention illegal.

11. In the subject case, admittedly, there is an inordinate and unexplained delay of 25 days in submitting the remarks by the Detaining Authority and unexplained delay of 5 days in considering the representation by the Hon'ble Minister for Electricity, Prohibition and Excise Department. The impugned detention order is, therefore, liable to be quashed.

12. In the result, the Habeas Corpus Petition is allowed and the order of detention in C.O.C.No.61/2020 dated 27.11.2020, passed by the second respondent is set aside. The detenu, viz. Annappanpettai Kumar @ Kumar, son of Kanthasamy, aged about 46 years, is directed to be released forthwith unless his detention is required in connection with any other case.
