2. The case of the prosecution as per the de-facto complainant is that due to wordy quarrel, the petitioners are alleged to have abused the de facto complainant with filthy language, attacked him with wooden log and threatened with dire consequences and thereby, caused injuries. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioners would submit that the petitioners are innocents and they have been falsely implicated in this case. He would submit that due to wordy quarrel, the occurrence had taken place. Therefore, he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Additional Public Prosecutor appearing for the respondent would submit that due to wordy quarrel, the petitioners abused the de facto complainant with filthy language and attacked him with wooden log and also threatened with dire consequences. However, he vehemently opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. Taking into consideration the facts and circumstances of the case and also the submissions made by the learned counsels and also the fact that the injured has been discharged from the hospital, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners, subject to the following conditions:

a) Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail, in the event of arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date of receipt of a copy of this order, before the learned Judicial Magistrate, Vandavasi, on condition that the petitioners shall execute a separate bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees ten thousand only) with two sureties, for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent police or the police officer who intends to arrest or to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned, failing which, the petition for anticipatory bail shall stand dismissed and on further condition that:

[c] the petitioners shall report before the respondent police as and when required for interrogation.
