

4. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is an innocent person and she has been falsely implicated in this case. However, on instructions, she submitted that the petitioner is ready and willing to deposit any amount as imposed by this Court and prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. The learned Government Advocate would submit that the petitioner was in illegal possession of 60 liters of I.D Arrack. He would further state that there are four previous cases pending against the petitioner.

6. Taking into consideration the facts and circumstances of the case and the submissions made by the learned counsels and taking note of the fact that the petitioner is ready and willing to deposit any amount as imposed by this Court, I am inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner subject to the following conditions:

7. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on her appearance before the learned Judicial Magistrate Court No.I, Villupuram, within a period of 15 days from the date of receipt of a copy of this order, on their executing a separate bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees ten thousand only) with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent police or the police officer who intends to arrest or to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned and on further condition that:

[a] the petitioner shall make non-refundable deposit a sum of Rs.5,000/- (Rupees Five Thousand Only) through demand draft to the Registered Advocates Clerks Association, Villupuram, without prejudice to his defence before the trial Court and the learned District Munsif cum Judicial Magistrate, after perusing the challan/receipt, shall accept the sureties furnished by the petitioner;

[b] the sureties shall affix their photographs and left thumb impression in the surety bond and the Magistrate may obtain a copy of their Aadhar card or Bank pass Book to ensure their identity;

[c] the petitioner shall report before the respondent police as and when required for interrogation;

[g] the petitioner shall not abscond either during investigation or trial.

[h] the petitioner shall not tamper with evidence or witness either during investigation or trial.

[i] on breach of any of the aforesaid conditions, the learned Magistrate/Trial Court is entitled to take appropriate action against the petitioner in accordance with law as if the conditions have been imposed and the petitioner is released on bail by the learned Magistrate/Trial Court himself as laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in P.K.Shaji vs. State of Kerala [(2005)AIR SCW 5560] and

[j] if the accused thereafter absconds, a fresh FIR can be registered under Section 229A IPC.
