2.The case of the prosecution is that there was a wordy quarrel between the petitioner and the defacto complainant, as a result of which, the petitioner had abused the defacto complainant in filthy language and attacked her with hands and caused injuries. Hence, the complaint was registered.

further submitted that there is a case in counter and the petitioner and his friends had also given a complaint before the respondent police in Crime No.1311 of 2021 against the defacto complainant. Hence, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

The learned Additional Public Prosecutor submitted that the injured person has been discharged from the hospital and there is no previous case pending against the petitioner and the investigation is almost completed. However, he vehemently opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

State of Kerala [(2005) AIR SCW 5560]; and;

(g) if the accused thereafter absconds, a fresh FIR can be registered under Section 229-A IPC.
