3. The entire allegation appears to be abusing the petitioner/de-facto complainant, who is running the tea shop, near the Judicial Magistrate Court at Vannur, wherein the accused has not paid money for consuming tea and coffee etc.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) submitted that the prosecution has already conducted investigation and charge sheet is ready to file.

5. Considering the nature of the allegations, this Court is of the view that, no further order is required in the case. The Respondents' Police are permitted to file the final report. Accordingly, this Criminal Original Petition is dismissed. Consequently, connected Miscellaneous Petition is closed.
