The petitioner, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the alleged offence under Sections 406 and 420 of the Indian Penal Code, in Crime No.70 of 20201 on the file of the respondent seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner is the wife of one Velumany who is the brother of the deceased. It is alleged that after the death of the deceased, the petitioner along with other accused withdrawn the amount in the deceased bank account by using using his debit card and cheque leaves by forging the signature of the deceased one Subburaj. It is alleged that more about Thirty Lakhs rupees has been withdrawn from the deceased account. Hence, the defacto complainant, who is the son of the divorced wife of the deceased gave a complaint before the Law Enforcing Agency.

He further submits that petitioner and other accused are close relatives of the complainant. He further submits that the dispute is civil is nature and hence he seeks for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Hence, he vehemently opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Considering the allegation levelled against the petitioner, this Court is not inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.
