The petitioner, who apprehends arrest for the alleged offences under sections 294(b), 324, 307 & 506(ii) of IPC in Crime No.645 of 2021 on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2.The case of the prosecution is that the defacto complainant is doing Hallow Blocks Manufacturing Business. On 17.08.2021, while he was going on his two wheeler, the petitioner along with other accused persons were alleged to have picked up wordy quarrel with the defacto complainant and attacked him using cricket stump. Hence, the defacto complainant lodged a complaint against the petitioner.

3.The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submits that the petitioner is no way connected with the occurrence as alleged by the prosecution and he has been falsely implicated in this case. Hence, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Additional Public Prosecutor submits the petitioner along with the other accused persons picked up wordy quarrel with the defacto complainant and also attacked him using cricket stump. He further submits that accused/A3 and A4 were detained under Goondas Act and that there is no previous case pending against the petitioner/A2. However, he vehemently opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and that there is no previous case pending against the petitioner, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.
