2.The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner reported 'no instructions'.

3.The affidavit filed in support of these petitions reveals that the petitioner started running a ladies hostel under the name and style of 'Lovedale Ladies Hostel'. During September, 2019, the third respondent gave a police complaint to Singanallur Police Station to forcibly evict the petitioner from the premises, however, after enquiry, the law enforcing agency advised both the parties to approach the competent civil Court. Thereafter, the petitioner made representations dated 24.09.2019 and 19.10.2019 to the second respondent seeking permission to run the hostel and since the same has not yet been considered has filed these writ petitions.

4.The first respondent has filed status report stating that the petitioner has not applied for the requisite licenses by submitting the mandatory documents issued under the Tamil Nadu Public Building (License) Act, 1965 and Tamil Nadu Hostels and Homes for Woman and Children (Regulation) Act, 2014.

5.In view of the above, the prayer sought for by the petitioner cannot be considered.

6.At this juncture, the learned counsel appearing for respondents 3 and 4 submitted that during the pendency of these petitions, the petitioner has vacated the premises and handed over the same to respondents 3 and 4. Hence, these writ petitions are dismissed. No costs. Consequently, the connected miscellaneous petitions are closed.
