These criminal original petitions have been filed to quash the FIRs in Crime Nos.18 and 17 of 2017 respectively, filed against the accused for the offence under Sections 419, 420, 465, 468, 471 r/w.294(b) & 506(i) IPC, on the file of the 1st respondent.

2. The allegation in the First Information Reports indicate that the accused impersonated in the name of a dead person and created a document and registered the document in the name of the dead person and thereby committed an offence under Sections 419, 420, 465, 468, 471 r/w.294(b) & 506(i) IPC.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that, as the petitioner has already re-conveyed the property and such mistake has happened due to the larger extent of land. Therefore, as the re-conveyance was already done, the First Information Reports have to be quashed.

4. At the outset, this Court is unable to persuade itself to countenance to the submission of the learned counsel appearing for the petitioner. The allegation of impersonation is very serious, that too the document has been created only after the person was died as if he was alive. Such being the matter, this matter requires further investigation. Accordingly, at this stage, this Court will not entertain this application to quash the First Information Report.

5. In the result, both the criminal original petitions are dismissed. Consequently, the connected criminal miscellaneous petitions are closed.
