ORDER

Heard the learned counsel on either side.

2.The petitioner is aggrieved by the impugned order dated 07.11.2020 whereby it is proposed to evict the petitioner herein. It appears that the rent payable by the petitioner was enhanced to Rs.15,000/- I am of the view that the adverse orders passed against the petitioner can very well be challenged by way of revision before the Commissioner, Hindu Religious and Charitable Endowments Department. The petitioner states that he will file appropriate revision petition before the Commissioner within a period of four weeks from the date of receipt of a copy of this order. If such revision petition is filed within the aforesaid period, the same will be entertained without reference to limitation. The orders impugned in this writ petition will not be given effect for a period of eight weeks from the date of receipt of a copy of this order. It is for the petitioner to press for an interim order before the Commissioner, HR&CE before the expiry of the aforesaid period.

3.The writ petition is disposed of. No costs. Consequently, connected miscellaneous petition is closed.
