COMMON ORDER

All these writ petitions have been filed seeking for the issue of a writ of Mandamus, directing the third respondent to implement/execute the order passed by the first respondent in proceedings, dated 29.10.2001.

2.The case of the petitioners is that they have been assigned agricultural lands and patta was also given in their favour. The third respondent subsequently passed an order on 27.12.1993 cancelling all the assignments. Aggrieved by the same, the petitioners and other assignees preferred an appeal before the first respondent and the first respondent passed an order through proceedings, dated 29.10.2001. By virtue of the said order, the matter was remitted back to the file of the third respondent for fresh disposal.

3.The grievance of the petitioners is that the third respondent did not come forward to hold any enquiry inspite of several representations made by the petitioners and other assignees. Left with no other option, these writ petitions have been filed seeking for appropriate directions.

4.Heard Mr.N.Shankar Ganesh, learned counsel appearing on behalf of the petitioners and Mrs.M.Rajeswari, learned Government Advocate appearing on behalf of the respondents.

5.Taking into consideration the facts and circumstances of the case and the limited relief sought for in these writ petitions, there shall be a direction to the third respondent to act upon the representations made by the petitioners on its own merits and in accordance with law and if no orders have already been passed, shall pass an order, within a period of twelve weeks (12) from the date of receipt of the representation from the petitioners.

6.The petitioners are directed to make fresh representations to the third respondent along with all the relevant documents and also a copy of this order.

7.All these writ petitions are disposed of with the above directions. No costs.
