3. Heard the learned counsel for the petitioner and the learned Government Advocate appearing for the respondents.

4. The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that he is unable to get instructions from the petitioner.

5. The Writ Petitions are of the year 2013 and the matters are pending for a long time. From the docket orders, it is seen that there was no representation for the petitioner on many occasions. Today, the learned counsel for the petitioner also submits that he is unable to get instructions from the petitioner. Hence, no useful purpose would be served by giving further accommodation.

6. Therefore, these writ petitions are dismissed for non-prosecution. No costs. Consequently, the connected Miscellaneous Petitions are closed.
