Prayer: Criminal Original Petition filed under Section 482 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, to call for the entire records in connection with the orders dated 06.10.2020 made in Cr.M.P.No.227 of 2020 in S.C.No.18 of 2013 on the file of the Sub Judge cum Assistant Sessions Court, Mudukulathur and to set aside the same.

For Petitioner : Mr.M.S.Jeyakarthick
For Respondent : Mr.S.Chandra Sekar
Additional Public Prosecutor

ORDER

The present petition is filed to set aside the order dated 06.10.2020 made in Cr.M.P.No.227 of 2020 in S.C.No.18 of 2013 on the file of the learned Assistant Sessions Judge, Mudukulathur.

2. The petitioner is the first accused in S.C.No.18 of 2013 on the file of the Additional Sessions Judge, Mudukulathur, for the offences punishable under Sections 147, 148, 294(b), 323, 324, 307 and 506(ii) of the Indian Penal Code. During the course of trial, the prosecution examined 10 witnesses on various dates. Subsequently, the petitioner filed a petition under Section 311 of the Code of Criminal Procedure in Cr.M.P.No.227 of 2020 to recall P.W.1 to P.W.3 and the said petition was dismissed by the trial Court vide orders dated 06.10.2020. Aggrieved over the same, the petitioner / accused has filed the present petition.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner contended that the trial Court dismissed the petition on the following grounds (i) the accused is trying to protract the proceedings (ii) the accused did not cross examine the witnesses when they were examined in chief. According to the learned counsel for the petitioner, the said order passed by the trial Court cannot be sustained, since no opportunity was given to the petitioner to cross examine the witnesses. His further contention is that S.C.No.18 of 2013 was previously filed before the learned Additional Sessions Judge, Paramakudi and it was transferred to the learned Additional Sessions Judge, Mudukulathur during the year 2017. His further contention is that P.W.1 to P.W.3 were examined in chief before the Additional Sessions Judge, Paramakudi and the counsel, who appeared on behalf of the accused did not cross examine the witnesses on the day when P.W.1 to P.W.3 were examined in chief.

4. The learned Additional Public Prosecutor contended that the learned Additional Sessions Judge, Mudukulathur, had passed a well considered order and that the petitioner / accused did not avail the opportunity to cross examine P.W.1 to P.W.3, at the time when they were present before the Court. His further contention is that since Non Bailable Warrants are pending against Accused No.2, 4 and 6, the Additional Sessions Judge, Mudukulathur, cannot proceed with the trial of the case in S.C.No.18 of 2013.

5. In the decision in State (NCT of Delhi) vs. Shiv Kumar Yadav reported in (2016) 2 SCC 402, the Hon'ble Supreme Court has held thus:

"29.We may now sum up our reasons for disapproving the view of the High Court in the present case:

(i)The trial court and the High Court held that the accused had appointed counsel of his choice. He was facing trial in other cases also. The earlier counsel were given due opportunity and had duly conducted cross-examination. They were under no handicap;

(ii)No finding could be recorded that the counsel appointed by the accused were incompetent particularly at the back of such counsel;

(iii)Expeditious trial in a heinous offence as is alleged in the present case is in the interests of justice;

(iv)The trial Court as well as the High Court rejected the reasons for recall of the witnesses;

(v)The Court has to keep in mind not only the need for giving fair opportunity to the accused but also the need for ensuring that the victim of the crime is not unduly harassed;

(vi)Mere fact that the accused was in custody and that he will suffer by the delay could be no consideration for allowing recall of witnesses, particularly at the fag end of the trial;

(vii)Mere change of counsel cannot be ground

to recall all the witnesses;

(viii) There is no basis for holding that any prejudice will be caused to the accused unless the witnesses are recalled;

(ix) The High Court has not rejected the reasons given by the trial court nor given any justification for permitting recall of the witnesses except for making general observations that recall was necessary for ensuring fair trial. This observation is contrary to the reasoning of the High Court in dealing with the grounds for recall I.e., denial of fair opportunity on account of incompetence of earlier counsel or on account of expeditious proceedings;

(x) There is neither any patent error in the approach adopted by the trial court rejecting the prayer for recall nor any clear injustice if such prayer is not granted."

6. Further, in Rajaram Prasad Yadav Vs. State of Bihar reported in (2013) 14 SCC 461, the Hon'ble Supreme Court has culled out certain principles to be kept in mind, while exercising power under Section 311 Cr.P.C., which read as follows:-

"(i) The exercise of the widest discretionary power under Section 311 Cr.P.C. should ensure that the judgment should not be rendered on inchoate, inconclusive speculative presentation of facts, as thereby the ends of justice would be defeated.

(ii) If evidence of any witness appears to the Court to be essential to the just decision of the case, it is the power of the Court to summon and examine or recall and re-examine any such person.

(iii) The exercise of power under Section 311 Cr.P.C. should be resorted to only with the object of finding out the truth or obtaining proper proof for such facts, which will lead to a just and correct decision of the case.

(iv) The exercise of the said power cannot be dubbed as filling in a lacuna in a prosecution case, unless the facts and circumstances of the case make it apparent that the exercise of power by the Court would result in causing serious prejudice to the accused, resulting in miscarriage of justice.

(v) The wide discretionary power should be exercised judiciously and not arbitrarily.

(vi) The Court must satisfy itself that it was in every respect essential to examine such a witness or to recall him for further examination in order to arrive at a just decision of the case.

(vii) The object of Section 311 Cr.P.C. simultaneously imposes a duty on the Court to determine the truth and to render a just decision.

(viii) The Court arrives at the conclusion that additional evidence is necessary, not because it would be impossible to pronounce the judgment without it, but because there would be a failure of justice without such evidence being considered.

(ix) Exigency of the situation, fair play and good sense should be the safe guard, while exercising the discretion. The Court should bear in mind that no party in a trial can be foreclosed from correcting errors and that if proper evidence was not adduced or a relevant material was not brought on record due to any inadvertence, the Court should be magnanimous in permitting such mistakes to be rectified.

(x) The Court should be conscious of the position that after all the trial is basically for the prisoners and the Court should afford an opportunity to them in the fairest manner possible. In that parity of reasoning, it would be safe to err in favour of the accused getting an opportunity rather than protecting the prosecution against possible prejudice at the cost of the accused. The Court should bear in mind that improper or capricious exercise of such a discretionary power, may lead to undesirable results.

(xi) The power under Section 311 Cr.P.C. must therefore, be invoked by the Court only in order to meet the ends of justice for strong and valid reasons and the same must be exercised with care, caution and circumspection. The Court should bear in mind that fair trial entails the interest of the accused, the victim and the society and, therefore, the grant of fair and proper opportunities to the persons concerned, must be ensured being a constitutional goal, as well as a human right."

7. The said decision has also been followed in Haryana Vs. Ram Mehar and others reported in (2016) 8 Supreme Court Cases 762, where the Hon'ble Supreme Court has held that "concept of fair trial cannot be limitlessly stretched to permit recall of witnesses endlessly on ground of magnanimity, etc."

8. A perusal of the orders passed by the learned learned Assistant Sessions Judge, Mudukulathur clearly shows that the petition to recall the witnesses under Section 311 of the Code of Criminal Procedure was filed by the petitioner / accused on flimsy grounds and that too after the lapse of four years. The petitioner also did not cross examine the witness when they were examined in chief. In view of the law laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court, this Court does not find any reason to allow this application. Moreover the trial Court has passed a well considered order and I do not find any infirmity in the orders passed by the trial Court and accordingly, this petition is dismissed. Consequently, the connected Miscellaneous Petition is closed.
