Heard the learned counsel on either side.

2. The petitioner had availed financial assistance from the respondent Corporation. The account appears to have turned into non-performing asset. The petitioner has given a representation for re-scheduling the loan obligations. Since the petitioner's request has not been considered, this writ petition came to be filed.

3. When the matter was taken up for hearing, the learned Standing counsel pointed out that the relief of regularisation was given on two occasions earlier. But on both the occasions, the petitioner failed to avail. The cheque given by the petitioner appears to have bounced.
